

Marx on St. Paul – the Process of the Poor and all its Revelations (1848)

By Karl Marx

Table of Contents

- I. Paul
- II. Paulinian epistle
- III. Forms of computer typing and book production
as well as computer
ideology

IV. Ideology mystifies the process of the poor – Sirohi is recently arguing that Bible is a science fully

V. Forms of scientific Bibles in Deterior – a pure company of Bible publishing – now read its rational message – that the poor are with Nature and that is

VI. Naturalism as versus modern capitalism and Jewish question to be taught in fact their Hebrew
pristine nature
thing

VII. Nature of Things

VIII. Fruit – and fruit costs, inflation

IX. Costs of small production units of billing in cheap
pesticide production

X. Forms of publishing, and types of
published Bibles,
and even Gospels, Qurans and Kabbalahs

XI. Types of pricing, and costing in these prints

XII. Printing press

XIII. Types of Gospels and what they preach – based on the form of letter and even form of costs – expensive

books for expensive bills in Judaism – no
the Gospel recently means – Arabic Gospel that means be with Truth – so published at a higher level, and costed better and finer – like fine clothing and wine.

XIV. Cost of wine and dining, and cost of production of wine –
vineyard parables –
the first group to read it since Paul is the Pope and Sirohi and others like them

– the Priests.

XV. Ideology of finance in Judaism

XVI. Ideological
Medias

XVII. Forms of labour and companies of labour

XVIII. An option for Sirohi as true
publishing – it
reveals that poor,

nature and trade
union is correct

XIX. Ratios of living labour to dead
labour and capital

XX. Capital and its financial maneouvering -
where is the Gospel
on this question - we are with the poor actually - the base in Christ - and that produces a science - of geography -

XXI. Beyond “Lystra”
and all that – I mean in fact geography – like what is happening to Thebes in it’s A.
Poor rights, B.
Feminist rights C.
Wealth dynamics
And D. the poorest in the hills – and that is Damascus – the poor and hills, which means tribals – that poverty, that hill, that river, and that Mediterranean

and Greek sense of what – nature, just nature you fool

XXII. Forms of laws,

XXIII. Law and Grace

XXIV. Only the Law

XXV. Only the Epistle

I. Clothing

II. Cotton Textile

III. Cheap agrarian products

IV. Franciscan Monks

V. Geographical Attention

VI. Modern Wealth

All of this then is Paul, that graceful man who then liberates by following, first and first only the poor, and then agrarian labour, its exploitation, and then companies and their wealth which then exploits by dynamic flows of financial companies – so Jewish

Question is not the only thing, Paul quips, there is also the poor.
